Public Event Celebrating Earth Day 2018!

Book signing with L.S. Gardiner: Tales from an Uncertain World

Thursday, April 26, 2018, 6:00 - 7:00 p.m.
DWPC Clubhouse
Free of charge; $5 donation gratefully accepted

So far, humanity hasn't done very well in addressing the ongoing climate catastrophe. Veteran science educator L. S. Gardiner believes we can learn to do better by understanding how we've dealt with other types of environmental risks in the past and why we are dragging our feet in addressing this most urgent emergency.

Weaving scientific facts and research together with humor and emotion, Gardiner explores human responses to earthquakes, fires, and volcanic eruptions and more in order to illuminate why we find it so challenging to deal with climate change. Instead of focusing on the economics and geopolitics of climate change, Tales from an Uncertain World brings large-scale disaster to a human scale, emphasizing the role of the individual.

L.S. Gardiner is the author of two children's books about science. She works at the UCAR Center for Science Education and resides in Boulder.

Everyone is welcome.

Special Member Event

The Changing World of Media and Healthcare with author Judy Graham

Thursday, May 3, 2018

5:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Dinner: $18 per person

For most of Judy Graham's three-decade-plus career as a journalist, she's written about healthcare and how people navigate this complex, baffling system of doctors, hospitals, insurance companies, nursing homes, and other kinds of care. For the past seven years, she's focused increasingly on the nexus between aging and health. Judy now writes a column, "Navigating Aging," for Kaiser Health News, and runs a Facebook Group on aging: www.facebook.com/groups/navigatingaging. There, she posts articles about aging and encourages discussions among its nearly 900 members. In this talk, Judy will discuss the changing world of the media and healthcare. She'll also feature some of the topics she's written about recently in her columns and what they tell us about how to age well. Judy Graham has been a journalist for 35 years. Her first newspaper job was at the Denver Post; she moved from there to the Chicago Tribune, where she was a correspondent for 14 years.

RSVP to Faith Marcovecchio by May 1 at faithnick@msn.com.

Members and their guests are welcome.

Sunday Salon

From Iran to Cuba, Algeria to North Korea: A Woman's Perspective from Travels in Unwelcoming Countries, with Carol Levering

May 6, 2018, 3-5 p.m.

Mary Levering is a lawyer, librarian, and educator. After a distinguished 45-year career at the Library of Congress (LC), she retired in 2011. Mary is a voracious reader, an avid world traveler, and a talented storyteller. To date she has visited 166 foreign countries and hopes to complete her goal of visiting every country in the world -- all 195 countries recognized by the U.S. Department of State.

Join us for a very special presentation and discussion, when Mary will share some of her most unusual and inspiring travel tales with DWPC members. Bring your own international travel stories to share as well. Mary's visit to the DWPC was made possible by her sister, and our dear veteran member, Beverly Chico.

Open to the public; $5 donation
