JULY 15, 2018

LAST CHANCE FOR YEARBOOK EDITS!
DEADLINE: July 15, 2018

The DWPC Annual Yearbook is the most important record of our 120 year-old history! You, yes YOU, are an important part of this historical legacy. That is why it is so important to update your yearbook listing and photo. Please review your listing in the 2017-18 Yearbook, including your photo. Send all changes to Linda Katchen, LKAT3@hotmail.com no later than July 15, 2018. You must have paid your dues, and submitted all changes by the deadline in order to be included the 2018-19 Yearbook.

Questions about your annual dues? Please contact Nan O'Neal Campbell: nanoneal2000@yahoo.com

Jewelry Sale Craft Day:
Tuesday, July 17, 2018, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.
Last month's craft day was a great success! We assembled more than 60 glittering book marks to sell at our annual Jewelry Sale this November. Next, we'll celebrate Christmas in July by decorating small trees with bobbles, rhinestones, and beads. Come join the fun! RSVP to Hilary DePolo: hilary@artconsultation.com.

SPECIAL SUMMER TREAT! LAS COMADRES BOOK CLUB EVENT!

Saturday, July 28, 2018, noon - 3 p.m.

DWPC is pleased to partner with the Denver chapter of Las Comadres Book Club, an international web-based book discussion group that focuses on Latina/Latino literature. Thanks to DWPC member Juana Bordas, Las Comadres will hold their July discussion event at our clubhouse, with a special invitation to our members to attend.

The book that we will discuss is All the Agents and Saints: Dispatches from the U.S. Borderlands by travel writer Stephanie Elizondo Griest. This timely work of non-fiction "explores contemporary borderlands in a way that both breaks the heart and heals it. A stunning book with an urgent message of peace for our times." --Ruth Behar, author of Traveling Heavy and Translated Woman.

For more information and to RSVP, please contact Karen Gonzales:

Concerned about online misinformation? The lack of news literacy? You can make a difference by participating in this free workshop!

Journalists, educators and librarians are invited to support this effort by participating in a free workshop on "Fighting Fake News with News Literacy" at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 11 at the Denver Press Club, 1330 Glenarm Street, Denver. Guest speaker is Damaso Reyes, Director of Partnerships, News Literacy Project, an education nonprofit offering programs that teach students how to sort fact from fiction in the digital age. The News Literacy Project is currently reaching more than one million students in all 50 states and 90 countries worldwide. Our goal is to increase the project's presence in Colorado.

The event is hosted by Colorado Press Women and the News Literacy Project. There will be appetizers and a cash bar.

RSVP requested: Sharon Almirall, salmirall@yahoo.com, 720-366-4676.

SAVE THE DATE! DWPC GARDEN PARTY

Tuesday, August 7, 2018, 5:30 - 7:30 p.m.

Come one, come all, to celebrate our glorious summer garden, and congratulate our 2018 scholarship winners. Prospective members welcome! Did you know that the annual garden party is a DWPC membership event? Please extend an invitation to your writer colleagues and friends to join us and learn about DWPC at this festive, informal event. Please include your guests' names in your RSVP to Joan Sherman: jsherman_276@msn.com.

GARDENERS - WE NEED YOU!

Whether you have a green-thumb or some other shade, we need your help keeping up the bountiful DWPC gardens this summer. The Club's Garden Group members put in an hour or two each season for garden maintenance. Duties are simple (deadheading and a small amount of weeding), the time commitment is small, but the rewards are immeasurable! Please email Garden Chair extraordinaire Mell McConnell: mell.mcdonnell@colorado.edu for further information or to sign up. Put GARDEN, all caps in the subject line.

PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITY!

Are you NOW, or have you ever been, a member of the Junior League of Denver? DWPC is considering partnering with the Junior League on a literacy project and we would like your support and ideas. Anyone interested in this project, please contact Buffy Gilfoil at proedit@aol.com or 303-204-7862.

Got News? Send your items to DWPC eConnect Editor Marcia Goldstein at marciagold@msn.com.
