Minnie J. Reynolds

Did you know?

The DWPC was officially founded by Minnie Reynolds and her cohorts on March 18, 1898 to welcome delegates from around the country attending the

National Federation of Women's Clubs Convention held in

Denver! Could Minnie Reynolds have imagined when she conceived the Denver Woman's Press Club that year that it would still be going strong 120 years later? One thing that remains unchanged is the desire to connect with like-minded colleagues for support and friendship.

You are cordially invited to "Drive Dull Care Away" by toasting our visionary Founding Mothers and our continuing vitality with a proper glass of bubbly. Birthday cake? Of course! Genial camaraderie? Absolutely. Plan to go all out and come in late-Victorian period costume (or whatever period you choose.) If your corset doesn't fit under a long skirt, a lovely hat will do nicely. A "Magic Lantern" show will cycle through historical club images, and a Trivia Quiz will test your DWPC knowledge for prizes and bragging rights. Veteran members are especially encouraged to attend and to share their DWPC memories in an informal storytelling circle.

RSVP ASAP! by Thursday, March 15 to Joan Sherman (our gourmet cake baker) at jsherman\_276@msn.com

Member News and Items of Interest

DWPC Profile on 9News:

Thanks to DWPC member Monica Stockbridge, who arranged for 9News KUSA to video short interviews and clips at the clubhouse! The short profile on DWPC will air sometime soon during Women's History Month. More details on date/time will be announced.

Center for Colorado Women's History Paid Fellowships:

History Colorado is seeking three recipients for its newly established Center for Women's History Fall Fellowship at the Byers-Evans House Museum. We invite scholars, activists, artists, and writers who are engaged in the generation and collection of knowledge to help inform the understanding of women in Colorado's history, specifically through the interdisciplinary lenses and methodologies of women's studies, gender studies, and/or race and ethnic studies. DEADLINE MARCH 31st!
