Sunday Salon Series Launches September 9th

"Dialogue? Let's Talk!" with Linda Berry and Suzanne Young

Sunday, September 9, 2018, 3-5 p.m.

open to the public - $5 donation requested

RSVP to:

In writing, as in life, there's a big difference between so-so conversation and sparkling dialogue. What can a writer do to make it sparkle. Come join the conversation about the challenges and techniques of writing good dialogue in plays, fiction, and even poems. How realistic should it be? How particular should each speaker's voice be? We'll be talking about writing realistic dialogue, comparing dialogue in novels with dialogue for plays and poems. Come share, ask questions, learn, and enjoy this informal, interactive discussion!

Reviews for Linda Berry's cozy mystery novels always mention small town charm and southern humor--and much of that humor comes from her ability to capture her characters' distinctive way of talking. Her plays have been prizewinners and her work--fiction, poetry, and plays--is often featured by Denver's One Night Stand theater.

Suzanne Young is the best-selling author of the Edna Davies mystery series, set in Rhode Island. She published her first Fishen-Rodd novel in April with plans to develop these new characters into a Colorado mystery series. In addition to her DWPC membership, Suzanne's other affiliations include Sisters in Crime, Rocky Mountain Fiction Writers and the Arvada Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association.

Anne Randolph Workshops Sunday September 9

Join my "How To Be an Amazon Bestseller" 9 a.m. and "Write on Fire!" 11 a.m. workshops at Rocky Mt Fiction Writers Colorado Gold Conference on Sunday Sept 9th. There's still room for Walk-Ups at the door. Renaissance Hotel I70 and Quebec.

BOOK SIGNING

You are cordially invited to join Corinne Brown and Lloyd M. Lewis, CEO of arc Thrift Stores (and a great friend of the DWPC) to celebrate the launch of their new book, "Why Not Them?"

Saturday, September 15th, 3 - 4 p.m.
Fabulous Fall Libations and Munchies
RSVP: Corinne Brown

Learn how the birth of Lewis's son Kennedy, born with Down syndrome in 2003, propelled him to see disabilities in a brand new way and envision a new world for those in need. As the new CEO of arc Thrift Stores, he rededicated the company to a larger mission - one of complete inclusion, providing jobs and a loving community for persons with all manner of disabilities.

Recently awarded the #1 Best-seller Non-Fiction Trade Paperback by the Tattered Cover, discover why this story is taking off. Corinne gladly shares about the process of writing a biography; Lloyd humbly explains how caring, commitment, and a previously unimagined, highly dedicated work force created a mega-company and enriches lives. Note* All proceeds from book sales fund arc Thrift programs. Book Cost: $13.95; Sorry. No credit cards.

JOIN US FOR SORTING!!

Our Jewelry Queens invite you to join the fun!
Tuesday, September 11th and Thursday September 20th, 11 a.m.

The Jewelry Sale Committee will be launching the annual ritual of sorting our pendants, dangle earrings, pearls, pins, rhinestones, beads, brooches, and bangles into saleable bundles of joy. We would enjoy your company and skills. Please let Hilary DePolo know if you will be able to attend:

JEWELRY DONATIONS NEEDED!

FOUND: THE LONELIEST DONATION BOX IN THE CITY AND COUNTY OF DENVER.

The strains of "I'm just a lonely box - lonely and blue!" could be heard through the Baker neighborhood this past week. The melancholy tune was traced to the porch of 313 W 2nd. For this thriving neighborhood, it was a sad sight indeed. A large empty box waiting to hold generous amounts of jewels and bling sat empty - buffeted by the winds. A few weighty donations of necklaces and earrings would anchor it, keeping it secure and stable. Jewelry often has that effect on those who hold it, wear it, buy it, and donate it. So make the ordinary brown box change the tune to Everything's coming up BLING! and smile with delight.

Make a donation TODAY!

Search your dresser drawers, your mother's dresser drawers, and anyone else's stash of vintage jewelry for fantastic finds that we can add to our inventory for the November Jewelry sale! Don't forget to tell your friends and relatives that it is for a very worthy cause -- scholarships for up and coming writing and journalism students! Contact Hilary, the Jewelry Queen to deliver your finds.
