Denver Then and Now
100 Things To Do in Denver Before You Die
Thursday, October 10, 5:00-7:00 pm
Happy Hour: $15 members, $20 non-members

Located at the foot of the Rocky Mountains and surrounded by natural beauty, Denver has always been a center of outdoor recreation. But today, Colorado's booming capital city is becoming as well known for its chef-centered restaurants, breweries, live music, galleries and trendy young neighborhoods. This book gives you ideas for places to bike, hike, walk, climb, sip, taste, browse and explore. From LoDo to LoHi, Cherry Creek to Longs Peak, this second edition of 100 Things is your guide to experiencing the best that the Front Range has to offer.

An undeniable expert on the Mile High City, Rich Grant is an enthusiastic and inspiring speaker. He served as director of communications for VISIT DENVER for 35 years. More than 50 newspapers and magazines have published his articles and photos. "There will be 10 new restaurants by October. We'll give tips on free things and other insider information."

Irene Rawlings has been editorial director of Colorado Homes & Lifestyles magazine and editor-in-chief of Mountain Living magazine. She writes for national publications, including Hemispheres, American Way, National Geographic Traveler, and the Wall Street Journal. For the past 26 years she has hosted an award-winning show on iHeartMedia radio.

For questions, contact Claudia Carbone, denverclaudia@gmail.com

GOOD, BAD, or UGLY DWPC NEEDS YOUR VINTAGE JEWELRY

It's a great time to declutter. Check those drawers one more time. Ask your friends, family, and neighbors. Contact Mary Van Meter, vanmeternt@aol.com or Jan McNutt, artrevue@aol.com, to pick it up.

For those who live in the south metro area, you can drop your donations off at Anne Randolph's house - 2407 S. Dahlia Lane, 80222. Contact Anne for directions, AnneRandolph@KitchenTableWriting.com.

Join the Party! Friday, October 18 10 am - 2 pm

Many thanks for those who came for the jewelry sorting on Sept. 17. We accomplished a lot while enjoying the camaraderie!

All are welcome to come join the fun at the next Jewelry Sorting Party. We'll shake some bootie, eat some foody and sort some jewelry! Any time you can give volunteering will help our scholarship fundraiser succeed.

Please contact Jan McNutt, artrevue@aol.com, to offer your help. Thank you!

Reception Honoring Donna McEncroe Saturday, September 28, 11:30 DWPC Clubhouse

In memory of Donna—a DWPC member who was a dynamic woman, wife, mother, writer, traveler, and friend—we are having a light lunch reception at the house. Donna joined the club in 1990. Her family lived in Evergreen, close to their restaurant El Rancho, which had a national reputation. Donna ran the gift shop, taking annual summer vacations to Mexico where she purchased many of the beautiful jewelry and decorative items sold in the gift shop. Her trips to Mexico inspired many of her stories and poems. She died August 14 in her sleep.

Please stop by and meet Donna's family. Email Sally Kurtzman if you would like to attend, sallyk@ecentral.com.
