2020 DWPC Program Payment Update

In the fall of 2019, the program committee instituted a payment policy for all attendees to pay in advance through our secure Paypal account on the dwpconline.org website. The change has worked well in guaranteeing our numbers for the caterer and alleviating congestion in the entryway.

Please be advised that the policy will continue for 2020. There will be no payments taken or drop-in options available at DWPC program events. Attendees are to pay in advance using a credit card or Paypal through our secure online account. A reminder will be included in each program announcement.

Thank you for your attention as we move into the 2020 decade.

Come prepared to laugh and cry as you enter and experience a different world.
